

Tasting Tassie with Christine Manfield

Led by celebrated chef and author Christine Manfield, Tasting Tassie is an opportunity to discover the very best culinary experiences Tasmania has to offer. This extraordinary culinary excursion includes private appointments with artisan food and wine producers, a sea foraging cruise, dinners at the best restaurants, an amazing full day 'paddock-to-plate' cooking experience and, of course, time to visit the stunning Museum of Old and New Art.

With a maximum of only 9 guests this intimate and discerning journey will offer access to the chefs, winemakers and culinary artisans who have built and maintained the stunning gastronomic diversity of this beautiful and unspoiled island.

Christine's vast local knowledge and connections combined with her inimitable style and humour promises a tour of unmatched quality and unforgettable experiences.
